Name of the Event: BRANDBUZZ

Date of Event: 13TH SEPTEMBER 2023

Venue: B Block Seminar Hall B-120

Coordinating Society: Computer Science Students' Society

Event Summary

Computer Science Students' Society organized "BRANDBUZZ", to test students' knowledge of tech brands. The event was organized in two rounds. Round 1 focused on assessing participants' recognition of prominent brands within the computer science and technical fields, such as Microsoft, Dell, Lenovo, and more. In Round 2, students were shown a advertisement video of famous tech brands and they had to recognize the brand associated with that ad video within a specified time limit.

Md.Vadiyat Naqvi (4th Year CSE) was declared as the winner of the event.

The event was successfully coordinated and managed by Lakshya Gupta (4th year) and Rahul Sharma(3rd year) under the guidance of faculty coordinator Ms. Priyanka Goel.
